

Maharaj's Song

I met my Master – when I was just a child
He conquered me and I forgot the world
I had full faith in Him – true dedication
And by His Words – I came to know.

Ref:

So I worship my Master like anything
Every minute each day I remember Him
He's the greatest of greatest in His own time
He gave me everything, so simple and clear
By His power and strength, He shows the way
So I bow at His feet, in gratitude each day
And because of His grace, I dare say
You are He, You are He

I met my Master – sincerely followed Him
He gave the key – to final realization
I listened carefully – He gave so easily
With strength of mind – I came to know
Ref

I met my Master – I gave myself to Him
He showed me clearly – that everything is one
He said I make a vow – that I can take you there
And with full heart – I came to know
Ref

I met my Master – Oh such a lucky day
I left myself – now He and I are one
He showed the sacred path – come on and follow me
I say all Truth – that you are HE
